Came across an article that is just in line with what we are looking for., small gifts that can be a good gift, appropriate for the season and even otherwise. It's not easy to figure out what to give, is it appropriate, is it acceptable in the workplace. Maybe you'd find it useful too. Sometimes we wonder what to give to employees as a gift or as a reward. Maybe it is Eid or Christmas and you want to give something in line with the season. Sometimes we want to give a small reward for good performance, nothing elaborate – just a pat on the back to tell the employee that she did a good job. Since we did the research anyway, we decided to publish it on our blog. Maybe you will also find it useful. See <http://bloggerkhan.com/best-small-gifts-as-employee-rewards/17998>
